1.2 Deliverable Definition. Each "deliverable" is one content asset: one email, one landing page, one blog post, one ad copy set (up to 5 variations), one product description, one social media post set (up to 5 posts), or one SMS message.

1.3 Not Included. Graphic design, video production, website development, paid media management, SEO technical audits (on-page content optimization IS included), and social media account management.

2. Term and Renewal

2.1 Initial Term. This Agreement begins on the Effective Date and continues for _____ (Initial Term). If the Initial Term is 1 month, this serves as a pilot engagement.

2.2 Renewal. After the Initial Term, this Agreement automatically renews month-to-month unless either party provides 30 days written notice of termination.

2.3 Early Termination. Either party may terminate with 30 days written notice. Client is responsible for payment through the current billing period. No refunds for partial months.

3. Fees and Payment

3.1 Monthly Fee. Due on the 1st of each month via Stripe invoice (credit card or ACH). Invoices sent at least 5 business days before due date.

3.2 Late Payment. 1.5% per month on outstanding balance after 10 days past due. Provider may pause delivery if payment is 15+ days overdue.

3.3 Setup Fee. If applicable, a one-time setup fee of $_____ covers onboarding, Brand Voice Bible, and initial strategy session. Due before onboarding begins.

3.4 Add-Ons. Additional services (rush delivery, extra deliverables, strategy sessions) at rates agreed in writing before work begins.

4. Content Delivery and Approval

4.1 Deliverables shared via Client's project folder with email notification.

4.2 Client has 5 business days to review. Unreviewed deliverables are considered approved.

4.3 Revisions cover changes within the original brief. Scope changes count as new deliverables.

4.4 Unused deliverables do not roll over month to month.

5. Client Responsibilities

Client agrees to: complete the Brand Questionnaire within 5 business days of signing; provide timely access to brand assets, product info, and audience data; provide clear feedback within 2 business days; designate one primary point of contact for approvals.

6. Intellectual Property

6.1 Ownership. Upon full payment, Client owns all final, approved content deliverables with unrestricted use rights.

6.2 Provider Tools. Provider retains ownership of all internal tools, prompts, templates, and methodologies. Client licenses the output, not the production system.

6.3 AI Disclosure. Provider uses AI tools (including Anthropic's Claude) in content production. All output is reviewed and quality-checked by Provider before delivery. Client acknowledges and consents to AI use.

6.4 Portfolio. Provider may reference the relationship and show anonymized samples. Client name, logo, or results require prior written approval.

7. Confidentiality

Each party keeps the other's proprietary information confidential, including business strategies, customer data, pricing, and internal processes. Exceptions: public info, prior knowledge, independent development, third-party receipt, legal requirement. Survives termination for 2 years.

8. Limitation of Liability

8.1 Provider does not guarantee specific business results. Performance depends on factors outside Provider's control.

8.2 Total liability capped at fees paid in the 3 months preceding the claim.

8.3 Neither party liable for indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages.

9. Dispute Resolution

Parties agree to 30 days good faith negotiation before other remedies. Governed by the laws of the State of _____.

10. General Terms

This is the entire agreement. Amendments require written agreement from both parties (email confirmation accepted). Provider is an independent contractor. Force majeure applies. Severability applies. No assignment without consent (except M&A;).
